

The entire processing flow of ceramic ferrules

Overview

The manufacturing process of ceramic ferrules involves several steps, including material preparation, molding, sintering, and polishing. The advent of materials science and the development of new technologies allowed ceramic products to be inserted in the most diverse sectors. The invention also discloses a production process of the zirconia ceramic ferrule. High-pressure low-speed injection is adopted in. The ferrule can be classified as a micro component with 2.5 mm outer diameter and 10 mm length, has critical and complex shape designs which is beneficially producing by injection moulding process. Its manufacturing requirements are very high, and parameters such as dimensional accuracy, roundness, and surface roughness need to meet standards to ensure the performance and reliability of. The ceramic ferrule manufacturing process is divided into two parts, that is, blank manufacturing and precision machining.
